

Slagle, Bernard & Gorman, P.C.
Recipient of the Prestigious 2014
KCMBA Robert C. Welch Volunteer Attorney Project Award

On May 16, 2014, the KCMBA Robert C. Welch Volunteer Attorney Project Award was presented to the Kansas City law firm of Slagle, Bernard & Gorman, P.C., at the 41st Annual Bench-Bar & Boardroom Conference Awards Dinner, held at the Chateau on the Lake in Branson, Missouri. The award acknowledges the firm's outstanding commitment to the delivery of pro bono legal services to the poor and elderly in the Kansas City, Missouri community. Slagle Bernard & Gorman, P.C. is one of the oldest law firms in Kansas City, having been established in 1919.

Attorneys Jonathan N. Dilly and Robert A. Stopperan, pictured below, proudly accepted the award on behalf of the firm from Perry Brandt, KCMBA President.
